

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota Office of the Governor

Whereas, The Parker School District has a long and proud tradition of educating the youth of the Parker area; and,

Whereas, Achievement of "Distinguished District" status is a highly esteemed and worthy goal for any school district in the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Educators, administrators, support staff, parents, and school board members of the Parker School District have demonstrated an on-going dedication to high academic performance; and,

Whereas, The efforts of the Parker School District student body demonstrates a work ethic and commitment to academic excellence that sets the bar for future generations of Parker students; and,

Whereas, The Parker School District has been the recipient of "Distinguished District" status for seven consecutive years, an achievement unmatched in the ranks of South Dakota public schools:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 28, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I urge our citizens to recognize the extraordinary efforts of the educators and students of the Parker School District in achieving this distinguished educational accomplishment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard
